Behaviour Management

Dear Parent,

‘At the end of the day, the most overwhelming key to a child’s success is the positive involvement of parents.’ - Jane D. Hull

Parenting is a process and we as parents continuously strive to nurture, protect and guide our children to achieve a happy, successful and fulfilling life.

In our pursuit to achieve this, we experience an array of emotions that are filled with joy, pride and love. However, there are times when we may feel stressed, doubtful or frustrated as we handle the seemingly endless challenge of parenthood.

To make the parenting journey more satisfying and positive, a session has been organized for our parents called ‘Holding Hands’ on Friday 23rd September from 9:00 am to 10: 00 am.

This session will be conducted by Ms. Neelima Dhiresh, a trained behaviour analyst and therapist who has experience working with children and guiding parents on effective strategies for positive parenting. Ms. Neelima is currently associated with Bridges Speech Center, Dubai.
